

What's a Father?

With Father's Day fast approaching (Sunday June 18th to be precise) we thought we'd take a moment and think about what a father really is and what that means.

In our modern world great parents comes in all sorts of shapes and sizes. A great father figure doesn't just have to be your biological Dad. They can also be a Stepdad, Granddad, Father-in-Law or even a favourite Uncle. Anyone who's stepped up and stepped into your life and is there for you 7/24 whenever you need them.

There's no better way of showing them what they mean to you than by giving them something that they can carry around with them 365 days a year. Reminding them how much you care, every time they look at it.

Whether it's your Dad, your Stepdad, Granddad, Father-in-Law or whoever is the Father Figure in your life, Sunday June 18th is your time to show him how much he means to you and how special he is.

So this year it's time to think outside the boring Father's Day gift box. It's time to surprise yourself with how affordable great gifts can be – and it's time to surprise the one you love with a gift that actually means something to you both and that will last a lifetime!

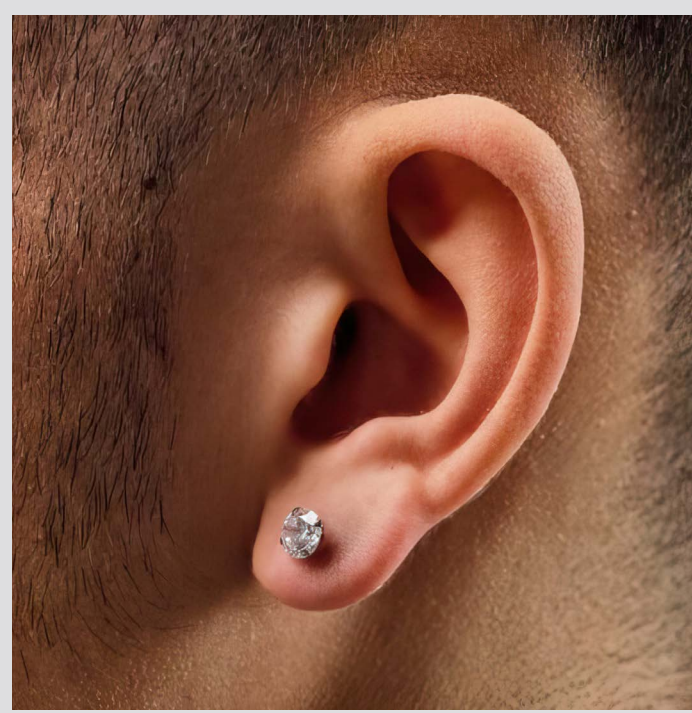

Give the slippers the slip!

Now we're certainly not saying that buying the perfect gift is simple. Especially if your Fathers are anything like ours. As every time you ask what they want, they usually reply with a really unhelpful – 'I've got everything I need', or 'can't really think of anything'. Don't panic though, we've done a little thinking of our own and have come up with some great, affordable, stylish and meaningful ideas for you to really surprise and delight him this year!

So it's time to wave goodbye to traditional socks, slippers, gloves and golf balls. As none of them say anything about how special he is and what he really means to you.

Whatever relationship or role your father figure is taking in your life, Father's Day is the perfect time to show him how much he means to you. It's his and your day – and a fantastic opportunity to focus upon how grateful you are for the love, support and sacrifices he makes for you. Even if he's not your biological father, getting him the perfect Father's Day gift is an ideal way of letting him know what an important place he has in your heart.
