

That's Amore!

Absolutely everyone loves our exclusive range of handmade Italian jewellery

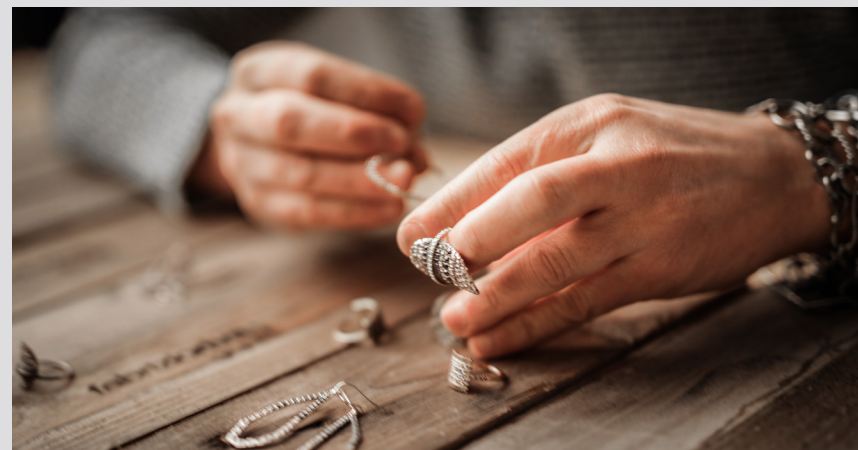

You
LOVE
it because...

Exclusive to us, every piece is designed and manufactured in Italy, by craftspeople and artisans at the very top of their game. Which means that you know every item is made with Italian style, quality and passion. Delivering modern, handcrafted and luxurious jewellery that you simply can't find elsewhere.

We LOVE
it because...

We've been working with our Italian designers for over four decades and we source our handcrafted jewellery from family-owned businesses. Which means that every item produced has generations of expertise, skill and love poured into it.

Not only that, but we can guarantee the quality of every individual item, because every single piece of gold and silver jewellery is independently checked and hallmarked by the UK Assay Office.

The Italian Ambassador
it because...

We have a very long history of importing fine Italian jewellery, which is why we're so well known with The Italian Trade Commission. In fact, we're that famous, that they approached us to work with them in helping promote our exclusive range of Italy's finest jewellery. Even Inigo Lambertini, the Italian Ambassador, came to visit us to thank us in person for the support we give to the family owned businesses and craftspeople we work with.

Now that's Amore!
